THE INTERNATIONAL COLLOQUIUM ON BLACK MALES IN EDUCATION

Disrupting Educational Disparities, Segregation, and Mass Incarceration: Hidden Battle Grounds for Black Males

Milwaukee Marriott Downtown — Salon AB

TUESDAY, NOV. 5 - PRE-COLLOQUIUM

9:00 AM - 3:30 PM  Black Female Forum
                    Milwaukee Marriott Downtown

9:00 AM - 4:15 PM  Graduate School Academy
                    University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, Zelazo Center - Room 171

4:30 PM - 6:30 PM  College Academy
                    University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, Zelazo Center - Room 171

6:30 PM - 8:30 PM  Community Conversations:
                    The Impact of Trauma on Black Males’ Life Outcomes Opportunities
                    Wisconsin Black Historical Society

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 6

9:00 AM  Opening Session

9:30 AM  Making a Difference in Education Keynote Address
         Black Male Teachers: A Dialogue on the Educational, Economic and Social Impact for Communities of Color
         Chance W. Lewis, University of North Carolina

10:45 AM  High Impact Practices in Wisconsin

12:30 PM  Equity in Life Keynote Address
          Salon C
          Do Black Men Deserve the American Dream?: The Impact of Gendered Deservingness on Economic Security for Marginalized Families
          David Pate Jr., University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee

1:45 PM  A Fireside Chat: "We Don't Have Failed Schools, We Have Failed Communities"

3:15 PM  Professional Development Opportunity
          Financial Empowerment & Wealth Strategies for African Americans

6:00 PM  Opening Reception
          Foyers
THURSDAY, NOV. 7

9:00 AM Opening Session

9:15 AM New Narratives Keynote Address
Journey of Incarceration to the Exclusive World of Development
Kalan Haywood Sr., Owner-Haywood Group

10:30 AM Round Table and Poster Session

12:45 PM Traversing Social Barriers Keynote Address
Historical Roots and Contemporary Challenges for Black Males in Education: The Enduring Role of Segregation and White Supremacy
John B. Diamond, University of Wisconsin-Madison

2:00 PM Manuscript Session
Take One - Postsecondary Institutions as Battlegrounds: Creating Pathways to Opportunities in Career and Life

3:30 PM Professional Development Session
Do You Play Fair? A Workshop About Unconscious Bias in Academia

5:30 PM Cultural Immersion Experience
America's Black Holocaust Museum

---

FRIDAY, NOV. 8

9:00 AM Opening Session

9:15 AM We Are Gifted Too Keynote Address
A Clarion Call to the Blacks: We MUST Desegregate and Integrate Gifted and Talented Education
Donna Y. Ford, Ohio State University

10:30 AM Manuscript Session
K-12 Schools as Battlegrounds: From Liabilities to Assets in the Education of Black Males

12:45 PM A Fireside Chat
Kalan I and II: An Inter-Generational Conversation on Black Male Success
Kalan R. Haywood, Sr., Founder and President, Haywood Group, LLC
Kalan R. Haywood, Jr., Representative, Wisconsin State Assembly District 16
Moderator - Carl A. Wesley, Center for Self-Sufficiency

2:00 PM Manuscript Session
Take Two: Postsecondary Institutions as Battlegrounds: Creating Pathways to Opportunities in Career and Life

3:00 PM Incarceration to Emancipation:
Navigating the Reentry Barriers to Regaining Full Citizenship

4:00 PM Closing Session

7:00 PM Awards Banquet and Induction Ceremony
Self-Agency Keynote Address
Flooding the Hood with Dreams: The Movement to Educate Black Males Beyond the Metrics
Muhubb Dyer, Motivational Speaker Specializing in Dropout Recovery & Trauma Mitigation